

Final Examination in English

A2 – B2

The examination assignment is the following:

Choose one of the assignments you completed this winter, either before or after Christmas. This will undoubtedly be the one you enjoyed doing the most.

The examination has five parts.

- The first and third parts are written and the second, fourth and fifth parts are oral.

1. Vocabulary (written)
2. Oral–self assessment (oral)
3. A written assignment (written)
4. A short oral presentation of the assignment you chose (oral)
5. Reading comprehension (oral)

- The written parts MUST be sent to your teacher by e-mail before the date of the examination, which will be _____
- E-mail address is _____
- After 2 pm on _____ any written assignments for the examination will not be accepted.

Descriptions of each part

1. Vocabulary

- a. Prepare a vocabulary list of at least 15 words taken from the assignment you have chosen. They are to be related to the theme of your assignment.
- b. Find English synonyms for the words you have chosen.
- c. Find the Icelandic translation of each word.
- d. Compose a sentence including each word so that the meaning can be clearly understood.
- e. Set up the list in an organized fashion and send it to the teacher by e-mail.

2. Oral self-assessment

- a. What did you learn by working with this theme?
- b. What did you get practice in?
- c. What did you get better at?

- d. Prepare a list of points about what you learned or got practice in regarding:
 - The use of the English language
 - The material you worked with
 - How you do best at studying English

- e. Have your list of points with you in the oral examination.
- f. It will be your responsibility to remember to take the list with you!

3. Your written assignment

- In the oral interview you will be talking about this assignment of yours with your teacher. You will be required to be able to answer questions about it.

- a. You have chosen one of your written assignments done this winter as the subject of your examination.
- b. Make sure you have considered the teacher's comments and requests and improved it as much as you can.
- c. Send it to me by e-mail to your teacher before the given cut-off point.

4. A short oral presentation of the assignment you chose

- a. During the interview, you will make a short, concise report on your assignment for about two minutes.
- b. You may give a general overview of the whole thing, or discuss more deeply a particular aspect of your assignment which appealed to you.
- c. You are allowed to have talking points with you, or a transparency which you have prepared to talk from.
- d. After your report, you will be expected to answer some questions about your assignment for a few minutes

Part 5. Reading comprehension

- a. After the interview, you will be given a short text on the subject of your assignment of choice.
- b. You will read the text fairly quickly.
- c. Then answer a few questions about meaning of it.