

Evaluation Rubric to Poetry Project Assignment 1

---

	Fulfills minimum requirements, but no more	Quite good in several respects	Excellent project
Content of assignment	All questions answered At least one example of each aspect of poetry asked for Attempts to express self about the thoughts and feelings provoked by the song lyrics.	Minimum requirements covered Gives more than two examples of each aspect of poetry asked for.	Minimum requirements covered Several examples of each aspect of poetry asked for. Student goes into details about the thoughts and feelings provoked
Conventions Mechanical correctness, including spelling and grammar.	Reader is distracted by frequent errors in spelling, punctuation, capitalization, usage and grammar	Reasonable control over writing conventions.	Standard writing conventions are strong.
Communication with teacher	An e-mail sent to announce that the student has begun the assignment	Minimum requirements Report sent at least once while working on the project.	Minimum requirements Report sent each time student sits down to work
Punctuality	More than 2 days delay	2 days delay – permission from teacher	Kept to the deadline
Self-evaluation	Numerical self-assessment on the scale of 0-5 given, but reason for assessment not clear.	Numerical self-assessment on the scale of 0-5 given and grounding for grade given self.	Numerical self-assessment on the scale of 0-5 given and reflective grounding for grade given self.