

Okkar mál

International Mother Language Day

Reykjavik City Library, Gerðuberg Branch, Gerðuberg 3-5
Saturday 23 February at 1-4pm

PROGRAM FOR CHILDREN AND FAMILIES

Program:

1-2pm

Open mother tongue lessons of the
The Association Móðurmál

2-2.30 pm

Fun games in different languages.

2.30-3.15pm

Story tellings in various languages with "Björk Bókavera"

3.15-3.45pm

"The Reader" - guidance through the exhibition.

3.15-3.45pm

"Þetta vilja börnin sjá" - guidance through the exhibition.

3.45-4pm

Æringi; let's peep into the adventure world of "Björk Bókavera" and sing the birthday song for Æringi in various languages.

2-4 pm Language Square:

- "Living language" - would you like to ask about Japanese, Italian, Czech or other languages? Use the opportunity and borrow a "living language"
- Language stands, representatives of various languages introduce their language and culture.
- Writing workshop, write a poem or a short text in your mother tongue, Icelandic, or blend the languages in an interesting way and decorate the text with pictures
- Joint book, "The Word is Free" in many languages; take part in making a big book in many languages and with multiple drawings
- Children's books in various languages, information about languages and great people from all over the world will be present.

The program is put together in cooperation with the Association Móðurmál, Reykjavík's Department of Education and Youth, Cultural Center Gerðuberg and Reykjavík UNESCO City of Literature.

www.borgarbokasafn.is